

Dr. CHIARA LEPORA

---

Department of Bioethics, Clinical Center, National Institutes of Health

10 Center Drive, Bldg 10, room 1C118, Bethesda, MD 20891-1156

Phone: +1 301 435 87 24

E-mail: leporac@cc.nih.gov

Education

---

Master of Science in Tropical Medicine and International Health

Diploma in Tropical Medicine

United Kingdom

October 2003 – October 2004

London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, London – United Kingdom

Summer project: Management of Sexual Violence in conflict areas and insecure settings: Development of an evidence-based Interactive Tutorial for Medical Doctors and Health Professionals

Grade A

Degree Medicine and Surgery

Italy - Portugal

Spetember 1994 - September 2000

Facoltà di Medicina e chirurgia (Faculty of Medicine and Surgery), Università degli Studi di Pavia and Lisboa

Training in: Emergency Medicine, Internal Medicine, Paediatrics, Gynaecology and Obstetrics, Orthopaedic and Reconstructive / Plastic Surgery

Thesis: “Trombo-embolismo venoso acuto: esperienze cliniche di terapia domiciliare in Pronto Soccorso”

Grade 60/60

Experience

---

Post Doctoral Fellowship in Bioethics, Department of Bioethics, Clinical Center, National Institute of Health

United States of America

September 2008 –

Research focus: Ethics of medicine in complex disaster

Emergency Coordinator, Medecins sans Frontieres – France

December 2006 – July 2008

Somalia, Tchad, Cameroun, Sudan, Kenya

- Responsible for field operation implementation, security and staff oversight
- Carried out exploratory assessments of health and humanitarian needs
- Assess feasibility and appropriateness of opening operational activity
- Analyzed security and political context, contributing to operation decision
- Contributed to operational decision making with MSF headquarters
- Developed political, medical, humanitarian and international contacts for operational implementation
- Developed and implemented medical intervention programs in Jubah Valley and Mogadishu (Somalia), Juba region (South Sudan), Southern Region (Tchad), etc.
- Hired, trained and managed 100+ medical and non-medical staff per each project

Head of Mission/Medical Coordinator, Medecins sans Frontieres – France

June 2005 – September 2006

- Responsible for field four project definition and operation

Liberia

- Oversight of 650 medical and non-medical national and expatriate staff
- Conducted ongoing analysis of security, political and humanitarian context
- Provided ongoing medical oversight for surgical, paediatrics, obstetrics and gynaecology
- Produced monthly operational statistical analysis and report
- Implemented integration of HIV-treatment into secondary health structure
- Oversaw 5 million Euro budget
- Proposed and carried out exit of intervention projects in Liberia

Women's Health Coordinator, Medecins sans Frontieres – France

October 2004-March 2005

Darfur

- Sudan

- Assessed incidence of sexual violence and access to care
- Defined and implemented emergency response for medical management of sexual violence cases
- Integrated women's health into medical operation
- Conducted sexual health training for medical, civilian and military
- Sexual health medical referral for four medical field teams in West Darfur
- Discussed and provided abortion care within the medical projects

Field Physician, Medecins sans Frontieres – France

June 2002 – September 2003

Angola, Democratic Republic of Congo

- Responsible for field medical care for nutrition, epidemic and conflict health
- Devised region specific programs for managing gender violence care, specifically for children.
- Organized and trained community peers to inform communities on access to care.
- Advocated and guided legal and counselling services for patients.

Toxicologist, Ospedali Riuniti, Department of Clinical Toxicology

June 2001-May 2002

Italy

- Conducted daily clinical consultations for acute cases
- Oversaw Anti-poison centre for northern Italia
- Medical referral for national maternal toxicology reference centre

General Practitioner Consultant, Regional Health Department

October 2002-April 2005

Italy

- Clinical referent for emergency care in rural areas
- Home-based Chronic cases follow-up

Emergency Room Consultant, Hopital Cochin, Paris

October 2000-April 2001

France

- Emergency Room Consultant
- Clinical referent for critical care for foreigners patients

Training

---

Formation Responsable des Opérations

France

Paris, January 2006

Two weeks intensive course on Operational Management, project definition,

HIV/AIDS training course*Switzerland

Geneva, May 2005

Two weeks intensive course on conceptualizing and carryout HIV/AIDS project in resources poor environments.

Teaching Experiences

---

HIV/AIDS training course*Germany

Berlin, October 2006

One lecture on conceptualizing HIV vulnerability in operational decision-making, one lecture on Sexual Violence Management within HIV/AIDS projects

Seminar on Context and limits of Sexual Violence Management in MSF operations*Italy

Rome, June 2006

Co-chair and organizer for 2 days seminar for 30 MSF medical and coordination staff

Understanding consequences of violence*Switzerland

Geneva, March 2005

Lecture on sexual violence management training for trainers

PPD (Pre-Premier Depart) Training course*Italy

Rome, May 2005

Permanent facilitator for new volunteers.

Foreign Languages

---

Verbal and written fluency in English, French, Portuguese, Italian

Competency in Spanish

Interests

---

“...The necessary premise is that a man is somehow more than his "characteristics", all the emotions, strivings, tastes and constructions which it pleases him to call "My Life". We have ground to hope that a Life is something more than such a cloud of particles, mere facticity.”

Saul Bellow